Head outside to the nearby wooded trails for your 10,000 steps. Because Seashell gathers all the inside parts of your day in one, efficiently laid out level. Sip your morning coffee on the covered patio. Stroll over to the tucked away office for some quiet project work. In the evening, wrap it all up with a good, long soak in a main floor owner's bath – the perfect remedy for your active outdoor (if not indoor) efforts. And should you need a third bedroom and bath, opt for the two-story plan, Seashell II.
